MEMBERS CODE OF CONDUCT

The Busselton Senior Citizens Centre Inc is a community based incorporated association whose aims include a range of recreational, cultural and social activities to members for the betterment of lifestyle and welfare within Busselton.

All of the centres, members and guests agree to the Code of Conduct to engender participation in the organisations programs, events and facilities and enabling a welcoming safe place for individuals to congregate and socialise. From time to time the Association arranges activities in which members participate in, either within the Association’s premises or on other premises. These are Associations linked to the Association.

To achieve this all members undertake to:

- 1. Behave and speak in a manner that is respectful of all others at all times and not to use abusive language towards a staff member, volunteer or other member;
- 2. Refrain from using foul language, derogatory behaviour or behaviour that is disruptive to the centre, users or their guests or act in a manner that is discourteous or rude to a fellow participant, staff member, volunteer, guest or invitee;
- 3. Not to engage in political activities that include but are not limited to handing out political flyers, political presentations, political fund raising or other related activities within the premises or during events provided or sponsored by the Association;
- 4. Wear such reasonable clothing and shoes suitable to the activities they take part in or are engaged in within the Centre when representing the Association;
- 5. Be responsible for their own personal property and ensure they treat other persons, members or guests personal property with respect undertaking not to abuse, take or deprive another member or person of their property;
- 6. Use all and any of the Association’s premises, furniture, fittings and equipment with care and respect at all times and leave it in the same condition in which it was found particularly in a clean neat condition;
- 7. Report any breakage, damage or unexpected event in which the Association’s property may be damaged or during which a person may be or is hurt or injured;
- 8. Report to the centre’s management any particular danger they observe by another person, equipment, premises or circumstances that could in the future pose a danger to the centre, member or other parties;
- 9. Report any unusual occurrences that occur during the course of any activity within the Association’s premises or any Association’s activity, immediately to the responsible person or the centre’s management as soon as reasonably possible;
- 10. Abstain from the use of alcohol and drugs whilst at the Association’s centre or whilst attending an Association event and to ensure that no drugs and alcohol are permitted in the building or on the premises under any circumstances save and except where authorised in writing by the centre management and in those circumstances to ensure the excessive consumption of alcohol does not occur;
